'Planting for Peasedown'

Want to do 'do your bit' for the environment?

Come and plant a tree at Peasedown's first community tree planting event

When? Saturday 29th November, starting at 9am

Where? The open space at the 'Radstock end' of Peasedown (where Heidi the hippy pig used to live).

Why? To decrease air pollution levels, make our village look even more attractive, provide wild-life with places to inhabit, bring residents together and to have fun!

Contact Nathan Hartley for more details (01761 420862/300522)

Christmas Tree still needed...

St John's is looking for a Christmas tree this year. Does anyone have a nice large tree in their garden we could have? If necessary we will cut down and collect. If you can help please speak to

David Cox: 01761 411291

Thank you!

Charles and Andrew Derrick would like to thank everyone who came to help collect money for Cancer Research UK outside Radstock Co-op last week. In total, £331.89p was raised for the charity.

This Week/Today

Commemoration of the Departed

Sunday 2nd November, All Souls Day, 6.30pm, St Johns Church.

More information on flyers at the back of Church

'Bridging the Gap'

Human Rights - Sixty Years On

Peasedown St John Village Remembrance Sunday Service

Sunday 9th November, 2.30pm, St Johns Church

Led by Matthew Street this service will include a two-minute silence, presentations from brownies and scouts etc and the laying of wreaths.

Can all Soul Fooders bring extra food next week for this event. Soul Food tea will be after this service (before Soul Food next week).

We expect about 150 guests.

Oasis - Its a woman thing

Tuesday November 25th, 1.30pm @ The Vicarage

Oasis is a women's group that meets once a month.

In November we have artist and politician Cherry Beath talking about her walk with God.

Cherry is currently a District Councillor on B&NES Council, and as an artist has been instrumental with the King Bladud Pig Project in Bath. Cherry has also been a Church Community worker and been involved in outreach programmes in prisons. This is a not to be missed event. All women welcome!

Benefice Office Closed

The Benefice Office will be closed from 13th-18th November 2008 inclusive,

re-opening on November 19th

(Any notices and worship songs for Sun 16th please have to Nathan by 9am on Tues 11th.)

Please contact Matthew Street during this period: 01761 432293/vicar@ubpw.com
