This Week

Oasis - Its a woman thing

Tuesday November 25th, 1.30pm @ The Vicarage

Oasis is a women's group that meets once a month.

Artist and politician Cherry Beath will be talking about her walk with God. Cherry is a District Councillor on B&NES Council, and as an artist has been instrumental with the King Bladud Pig Project in Bath. Cherry has also been a Church Community worker and been involved in outreach programmes in prisons. This is a not to be missed event. All women welcome!

Bring a spade!

'Planting for Peasedown'

Want to do 'do your bit' for the environment?

Bring a spade!

Come and plant a tree at Peasedown's first community tree planting event

When? Saturday 29th November, starting at 9am

Where? The open space at the 'Radstock end' of Peasedown (where Heidi the hippy pig used to live).

Why? To decrease air pollution levels, make our village look even more attractive, provide wildlife with places to inhabit, bring residents together and to have fun!

Contact Nathan Hartley for more details (01761 300522)

PSJ Churches Together Christmas Card & Benefice Church Brochure

Help is needed to deliver these to the whole of Peasedown between 30th Nov - 6th Dec. It takes roughly 30 hours to deliver to every house. If 30 people volunteer that's only an hour each. Delivery rounds will be ready for collection from Church on Sunday 30th November. If you are not available to pick up a round phone Nathan to make alternative arrangements

Help Needed!
