The revision of the Electoral Roll for both churches begins

Both churches will be having their Annual Parochial Church Meetings on 21st March. Like an AGM, this is your chance to review what's been going on over the last year and to elect new representatives to the PCC. If you're interested in getting involved with church management and the future direction of the church see Matthew for more info.

To vote in these elections you will need to join the Electoral Roll for your Church. You can pick up an application form in church. Completed Wellow forms need to be given to Charles Kerr.

Completed Peasedown forms need to be given to Nathan Hartley.

The revision of the electoral roll finishes on Saturday 6th March - Charles and Nathan must have completed forms by this date!

Baptisms at St John's

Sunday 28th February This is the first of our baptism services this year by full immersion. If you are interested in being baptised please speak with Matthew.

Bring and Share... with the Curds

Jerry, Jo, Josh and Ben Curd are opening their house next Sunday (28th Feb) for a bring and share lunch. Arrival is from 12.30pm, with food at 1pm.

If everyone who'd like to go can take enough for themselves plus a bit extra that would be great.

It works best if people bring one large main plus a pudding and bottle/carton of drink.

The Curds live at 68 Bristol Road, Radstock, BA3 3EQ. Phone 01761 434652 for details.

An evening in Jerusalem

8pm, Friday 12 March, Holy Trinity Combe Down. Stimulate your senses with an evening in the church with Richard and Rosalind Meryon and Ray and Jill Lockhart. This is a special opportunity to hear from the Meryons about their first few weeks working at The Garden Tomb, their adventures as they get used to life in Jerusalem and the many and diverse people they have met already. Ray and Jill Lockhart will also be telling us about their travels and ministries in the Holy Land. Be prepared to taste, see and hear Jerusalem in Combe Down. Doors open at 7.45 for refreshments.
