Helping out at the Wellow Flower Festival

"Our friends at St Julian's in Wellow are organising a week of activities in their village and it all sounds very exciting. Pauline Preddy has asked if some of us would be willing to help out particularly with the Flower Festival which starts on Fri 18th at 1.30pm and runs through to Sunday 20th Jun. There are opportunities to help with refreshments and guiding people round the church but Pauline would particularly like some support from people who would be willing if appropriate to share more about the life of the church, when the services and community groups meet and also to share something of their faith. This is a great opportunity to support an outreach activity in the benefice and I hope as many as possible will take up the opportunity to help out. You can give as little time as an hour or more if you like. Please call Pauline on 01225 832625 or email ppred2ch@talktalk.net to confirm a slot. Many thanks, Joy"
